POWER RESTORED AT RAND WATER'S PALMIET PUMPING STATION

Following the announcement that Rand Water's Palmiet Pumping station experienced a power trip on Tuesday, 07 February 2023, we are pleased to report back that the system has been restored. The pumping station was restored on Tuesday, 07 February at 20h00 and the system pumping was at maximum capacity by 23h40.

The water utility would like to thank its technical team and the Eskom team for working around the clock to identify the root cause and more importantly for restoring the affected system.
